Note: In most cases, permit fees require RFTA to process the initial application fees, and comment/request corrections, plus a second review with corrections. Beyond the second review, time and materials charges may apply as determined by RFTA.

RFTA fees are independent of any City/County/State Permit fees.

A. Time & Materials Basis

B. Radio Equipped/rules qualified person under GCOR in freight rail easement. No exceptions if track is “in use” in Union Pacific’s and RFTA’s dispatching systems
C. All term “days” in the above are working days.
D. House moving contracts require CDOT/City/County Permits first
E. RFTA is now implementing a fine/fee charge for any work completed that is not approved or does not meet RFTA Standards once installed.

TABLE G-8

RFTA FEE MATRIX NOTES

Note 1 Fees are paid for on a reimbursement basis after receiving letter from applicant for time and materials fee as generated by RFTA and its designated consultant/sub-consultants. RFTA will not allow construction or use of license for purpose intended until all license fees, conditions and insurance requirements have been met.

Note 2 Because of the nature of time and materials work, RFTA will not set a specific review fee amount

Note 3 "Cond" = Conditional determination for insurance requirements predicated on purpose and use per review by RFTA's Risk and Insurance Manager, Maria Vasquez.

Note 4 Insurance requirements and Flagman/Inspector rules change when Surveyors enter into Union Pacific's Freight Rail Easement, fouling any active track. (Including possible UPRR Flagman fees).

Note 5 Memorandum of agreement and additional fees may be required depending on scope and size of project conditions imposed by Colorado PUC may also be involved with public roads and/or utilities. All to be handled on a case by case basis.

Note 6 Any utility location fees will be borne by the Applicant to satisfy RFTA/City/County/State requirements.

Conditional: Conditional Fee, may be waived by RFTA
